Benjamin Disraeli wrote: "The world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

Anti-Globalist Warren Harding was awarded the Republican nomination instead, and then went on to win the 1920 election by a 2-1 margin.

An Inspector General's investigation into suspected financial fraud nearly ended Eisenhower's career and could have landed him in prison. (14) Investigators charged Ike with having knowingly accepted $250 in dependent housing subsidies ($3,500 in 2017 dollars) for Mamie and Icky while they had actually been residing with Mamie's relatives in Denver. 20 Ike was forced to repay the extra money that he had pocketed. But General Eli Helmrick insisted that Ike had acted with clear intent to defraud, and wanted him court-martialed and discharged. In addition to Helmrick breathing down his neck, Eisenhower, his career fading fast, was still in the dog-house with Generals Farnsworth and Sheets over his provocative writing. Oh, how fortunate for Ike that his friend George Patton had previously become such good friends with a man of General Fox Conner's rank.

In an effort to keep America inflamed, the British fabricated a story about German school children being given a holiday to celebrate the sinking of the Lusitania. Other false tales told of German soldiers nailing babies to church doors in Belgium.

31 Battle of Verdun / Kaiser Wilhelm wanted peace all along.

Chaim Weizmann and Nathan Sokolow approached the British with a dirty deal. The Zionists offered to use their international influence to bring the US into the war on Britain's side, while undermining Germany from within. The price that Britain had to pay for American entry was to steal Palestine from Ottoman Turkey (Germany’s ally) and allow the Jews to settle there.

By the fall of 1918, it was clear that Germany could no longer win the War. Its policy now was “to not lose it either." As he had in 1916, the Kaiser offered to negotiate peace on terms favorable to all. Though Germany could not win, the Allies were not able to win either. Germany's Eastern front with Russia was closed. 38 There were no Allied troops on German soil, and the Capital, .Berlin, was 900 miles safely away from the front.

The Treaty of Versailles contained 440 clauses, 414 of which were dedicated towards punishing Germany for a war that had been imposed upon her.

Two million West Prussians were forcefully expelled from their homes, and East Prussia was left isolated from the rest of Germany.

To draw recruits away from both the rival “right” Nationalist and “left” Socialist Parties, Hitler simply adds ‘National’ and ‘Socialist’ to the Party’s name, making it NSDAP. They never called themselves "Nazis".

Reds staged large rallies which led to violence in Boston, New York, and Cleveland.

61 "During that time, I met and worked with many people whose opinions I respected highly. Among these an outstanding figure was Bernard Baruch, for whom my admiration was and is profound. I still believe that if Mr. Baruch’s recommendations for universal price fixing" Dwight Eisenhower

Eisenhower opposed his superior’s plan to crackdown on the Reds.

“to transform the department immediately into a vast action agency to restore parity of income to American farmers.” Henry A. Wallace, Roosevelt's Secretary of Agriculture- a villain now known to have been a secret communist.

To manipulate prices upward so that unpayable business loans can be repaid, farmers were ordered to kill livestock as millions went hungry during the Great Depression. In one well-known case, a New Jersey tailor named Jacob Maged was arrested and convicted for charging too little to press suits. Upon his release after 3 days, Maged was forced to increase his prices and display a blue NRA sticker on his shop window

88 And one thing that is clear to me is that Germany did not make up these attacks." George H. Ohio, USA

The Neutrality Acts had prohibited the United States from selling arms to warring nations. The purpose of these acts was to prevent the U.S. from again becoming involved in Europe's wars. Throughout the 1930's, FDR and Bernard Baruch, anticipating a new war against Germany, had unsuccessfully tried to amend the previous Neutrality Acts. Soon after Germany and Poland began fighting, FDR again urged Congress to repeal the Neutrality Acts.

July, 1939 George Marshall & Bernard Baruch plot to prepare America for a new war, "I was in hopes we would have a neutrality legislation that would permit the manufacture of airplanes and the export thereof during war" Bernard Baruch

121 1942-1945 General Eisenhower takes a mistress - divulges wartime secrets to her

The grand plan was to hand Eastern Europe, on a bloody silver platter, to the monster Joe Stalin.

"This landing is part of the 132 concerted United Nations plan for the liberation of Europe, made in conjunction with our great Russian allies." Eisenhower after D'Day

Instead of exploiting the "soft underbelly" of Italy, Eisenhower sent thousands of men to their deaths by storming fortified French beaches to allow the Soviet Union to capture East Europe.

General Devers could have rolled into Germany and taken Berlin, but Eisenhower (who disliked Devers) stopped him

The deadly German counter-offensive known as “Battle of the Bulge” should never have happened.

151 "I could have taken it (Berlin) had I been allowed.” General George Patton

Operation Keelhaul by Julius Epstein is one of the most heart-breaking accounts that you'll ever read. Terrified Russian POWs (declared to be traitors) and Waffen SS men from many countries were shipped to the USSR to be murdered

The Marshall Plan was a massive US Foreign Aid scheme for post-war Western Europe. The only way to sell the Globalist Marshall Scam was to use reverse psychology and present it as an "anti-Communist" plan that Stalin opposed.

The National Security Act of 1947 created the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). Upon Globalist orders, the super-secret CIA assassinates political leaders, stages ‘false flag’ terror attacks, manipulates the news and destabilizes foreign governments. CIA is also active on U.S. soil.

August, 1948 Alger Hiss exposed as a Soviet spy

Thinking that they could eventually work with him to build an integrated ‘New World Order’, the Globalists turned a blind eye to Stalin getting an atomic bomb - and then they used the fear of the weapon to manipulate the world into more and more Globalism.

197 Notice how the Time Magazine Cover for CIA boss Allen (Image 2) depicts an assassin with “cloak and dagger.” Who knows how many people the Eisenhower-Dulles gang assassinated with “heart attacks” and “cancer.”

"Eisenhower knew POWs remained in Korea Newly disclosed documents suggest that as many as 900 U.S. servicemen were left behind in North Korea after the United States and North Korea exchanged prisoners following the Korean War. The declassified papers were released by the Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library." CNN

August, 1953 The Iranian Coup: Eisenhower and Churchill overthrow the government of Iran. As now confirmed by declassified CIA documents, some of the nastiest mobsters in Tehran were hired by the plotters to stage “spontaneous” pro-Shah riots in August. Other CIA & MI6 hirelings were bused into Tehran to take over the streets. Between 400 and 800 people died in the ensuing conflict. Mosaddegh was arrested and convicted of “treason” by the Shah's military court. He was sentenced to three years in jail, and then placed under house arrest for life. His loyal supporters were imprisoned and several were executed.

214 The Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) was quick to denounce the Bricker Amendment by running a 19 page hit piece in its quarterly journal for the elite, Foreign Affairs. CFR man Eisenhower obediently fell into line, fronting for his New York masters in calling the Bricker Amendment backers “nuts and crackpots.”

Eisenhower’s phony “Domino Theory” was just more of the same Cold War Globalist propaganda. Domino Theory eventually led to the disaster of the Vietnam War.

The geo-political game in Vietnam, as it was in Korea, was never about “stopping communism.” The purpose was to keep America bogged down in endless no-win wars against the exaggerated foreign “bogeyman” of Soviet communism. This is not to suggest that the Soviet Union was not a real adversary, of course. But the true communist threat was domestic all along. Under Ike’s protection, this cancer, under the guise of “liberalism,” continued to spread like cancer throughout America’s political, journalistic and academic institutions.

Operation Wetback originated from a request by the Mexican government to stop the illegal entry of Mexican laborers into the United States.

The 1954 Guatemalan Coup was yet another covert operation carried out by the Eisenhower gang. The coup, code-named Operation PBSUCCESS, deposed the democratically-elected President Jacobo Árbenz and installed the military dictatorship of Carlos Castillo Armas. The United Fruit Company (UFC), whose highly profitable business had been affected by the end to exploitative labor practices in Guatemala, wanted Árbenz out.

Autumn 1956 Hungarian Revolution, there were to be no weapons, nor even any symbolic words, recognizing the struggle for a free Hungary. All that President Eisenhower could muster was an empty and obligatory: “Our hearts go out to the people of Hungary."

244 The “Warren Court,” named after Chief Justice Warren, remains infamous in the minds of conservatives. Warren’s 16-year reign of radical activism enhanced judicial power in dramatic fashion never intended by America’s founders. The Warren Court handcuffed police, coddled criminals, abolished school prayer, imposed integration on school districts, restricted religious freedom and protected communist subversives.

Just like Chiang in China ('49), Batista was betrayed when the U.S. refused to ship armored cars purchased by Cuba. This emboldened Castro and demoralized the Cubans. By abandoning Batista, the Eisenhower gang handed Cuba to Castro. In 1960, Ambassador Smith charged: "Without the U.S., Castro would not be in power today."

For his service to Castro's communism, both before and after the revolution, Castro presented Herb Matthews, his propagandist friend at the New York Times with a medal during his 1959 visit to New York.

First Lady Jackie Kennedy would later reveal how her husband was so upset that he put his head in his hands and wept over the fate that had befallen the betrayed Cuban patriots at the Bay of Pigs.

Lemnitzer’s scheme called for CIA operatives to commit terrorist acts in American cities which would then be blamed on Cuba – the purpose was to create public support for a war, which would surely have escalated into a world war by drawing in Cuba’s Soviet protector. The proposals included the shooting of innocent Americans on the streets, hijackings, and bombings followed by the introduction of phony evidence to implicate Cuba. False Flag Horror: Another Eisenhower plant causes trouble for Kennedy. Lyman Lemnitzer wanted American planes to be shot down and American citizens killed in the streets. Kennedy killed the plan.

268 in a series of 1962-63 rulings, the Eisenhower / Warren Court banned bible readings and even non-sectarian prayers in public schools. These shocking edicts were applauded by Communist and Jewish groups nationwide.

The Tonkin Gulf Incident was a fabricated event involving the US and Red North Vietnam. The new President, Lyndon Baines Johnson (LBJ) claimed that the 271 North's torpedo boats fired upon U.S. ships. But he was either lying or played for a fool by the Council on Foreign Relations "advisers" surrounding him. There had been no attack. Defense Secretary McNamara (CFR) lied about the fictitious attack which will drag America into the Vietnam War.
